YA#	orig#	Description:
81/33 #40	Box 2 - ; [46131]	Reading news of Santiago, Dawson 1898. Asahel Curtis Photographer [Large crowd of people gathered shoulder to shoulder on Front Street in Dawson City, Yukon. A man is reading accounts from a newspaper of American victories in the Spanish - American War. Log buildings in background include "Dawson City Outfitting Co. Outfits Bought Sold Cigars & Tobacco".] [Photographs 81/33 #40 and 82/294 #3290 are the same image (but with different cropping).] "The story of the American naval victory over the Spaniards at Santiago lost none of its interest to the thousands of Americans in Dawson City because the paper was two-weeks old. The first paper to reach Dawson sold for $200. The purchaser rented a hall, charged admission to hear the paper read, and cleared $500. He sold the paper for $50 the next morning, and Judge Morford read it aloud to a crowd that jammed Front Street" (46131, University of Washington Libraries Curtis Collection). - 1898. - Photographer: Asahel Curtis.
