

YUKON ARCHIVES LEGACY SOUND RECORDINGS SUBJECT HEADINGS

Interview with Frank Fingland by Doug Whyte

Notice - The accuracy of this legacy sound recordings subject headings cannot be guaranteed due to one or more of the following factors:

- The format and contents of the document may not be at our current standard
- Location codes may have changed
- Material may have been added or removed
- The document may be incomplete
- Descriptive language may have changed

We are providing the following digitized sound recordings subject headings as a source of additional information about the Frank Fingland fonds, as it may still be useful as a tool in your research. Please contact the Yukon Archives Reference Service for further information or assistance (867-667-8061 or yukon.archives@gov.yk.ca).

This page intentionally left blank.

Outside Dates: 1990

Sound Recording SR 110 (1-3)

Subject Headings and Tape Numbers

Cameron, G.I. 1a, 1b, 3a

Collins, Frederick H. 1a, 1b 3a

Constitutional amendments

- Northwest Territories 1b, 2a, 2b

- Yukon Territories 1b, 2a, 2b

Dawson City

- Business enterprises 1a

- Festivals, etc. 1a, 1b

Faulkner, Hugh 1b, 2b, 3a

Fingland, Frank

- Personal narratives 1a, 1b, 2a, 2b, 3a, 3b

Formula Financing Agreement 1b, 2a

Indians of North America - Yukon Territory

- Economic conditions 3a

- Education 1a, 3a

- Land claims 3a

- Languages 3a

- Politics and government 3a

- Self government 3a

- Social conditions 1a, 3a

Northwest Territories

- Constitutional development 2a, 2b

Squatters

- Whitehorse 1a, 3a

Yukon Territory

- Constitutional development 2a, 2b

- Constitutional history 1a, 1b, 2a, 2b

- Economic development 2a

- Economic policy 1b, 2a

- Government - Officials and employees 1a, 1b, 2a, 2b, 3a

- Government programs 1a, 1b

- Politics and government 1b, 2b, 3a

- Resource management 2b