Join Hands Across the North

Words and Music by Patrick Bourke

Verse #1 Years in the making
 Standing all alone
 Through the discipline of training
 Tuning flesh and bone
 To bring them all together
 To compete within their sport
 Feel the power, feel the joy
 In joining hands across the North

Refrain: Join hands across the north
 At the Arctic Winter Games
 Explore in all your glory
 Feel the power that's your source
 In joining hands across the North

Verse #2 Whether through the rolling tundra
 Or the mountains wild and free
 The training of the athlete
 No one there to see
 Join now in competition
 Let nature take its course
 Feel the power, feel the joy
 In joining hands across the north

Refrain

Verse #3 This day they lend a trust
 That's deep within us all
 Run the good race to our goal
 Be strong if you should fall
 Never let discouragement keep you from your source
 Feel the power, feel the joy

Refrain (sing twice)
