The White Pass fliers hopped for Dawson shortly before midnight.
C. A. Carman, representative of the firm of McKay, Smith, Blair & Co. Ltd., wholesale clothiers of Vancouver and F. J. King, Agent for the drygoods firm of Gault Bros, Vancouver, were outgoing air riders from Mayo. Mr. Burns also continued on to the gold metropolis.

Mr. Richards is Yukon Manager for Burns & Co. Ltd., also Pres. and Operations Manager for Klondike Airways Ltd., overland winter mail contractors for this territory. He is here for a short visit to look over the aftermath of the recent flood.

Mr. Middlemass, the Postoffice Inspector, left for Keno in Bud Fisher's Chevrolet sedan, driven by Roy Pickard, last night.

Sultry, hot weather prevails in Mayo to-day, offset somewhat by a sharp, cool breeze off the river. Heavy clouds of smoke blanketing the adjoining district presage a forrest fire somewhere in this vicinity. A short shower of rain fell yesterday afternoon.
