The residence telephone number of a subscriber may be advertised only in conjunction with the advertising of his business telephone number.
2. Business or residential telephone service shall not be furnished where the equipment is accessible to the general public. The Company shall have the right to change the location of the telephone instrument if it does not meet the requirements of this regulation.
3. The Company will endeavor to keep the lines and instruments in good working order and undertake to clear trouble and make repairs with all reasonable dispatch, but does not guarantee uninterrupted service.
4. The use of the Company's service for annoying other persons or impersonating any individual, and the use of offensive language while using or conversing over the Company's facilities is not permitted. The Company may terminate the service of any subscriber who commits any breach of this regulation, or who permits any person to use the telephone or service furnished such subscriber contrary to this regulation.
5. Equipment and wiring on the subscriber's premises, furnished by the Company, shall remain the property of the Company. The subscriber shall not remove, alter, or make any attachments thereto.
6. When it is necessary to erect poles or anchors in order to carry the wires from the main telephone line or cable distribution to the applicant's premises, such poles and anchors as well as excess wire, beyond 200 feet from the main telephone line or cable, will be supplied and erected by the Company at the expense of the applicant.
7. The protection of service from unauthorized use is the subscriber's responsibility and he shall be accountable for long distance charges for calls placed from his telephone.
8. Telephone instruments and equipment at installation are located where the subscriber directs, subject to the approval of the Company, and must not be moved or interfered with. When the subscriber desires to have the telephone moved to any other location notice in writing should be given to the local office, at least ten days before the change is desired. The work will then be done as promptly as possible at regular charges.

9. Subscriber's discontinuing service must notify the Telephone Company in writing, providing a forwarding address or call at the business office to clear outstanding accounts. Failing to do this, subscribers will be liable for all charges up to the date instrument is removed or taken over by a new subscriber.
10. The Telephone Company assumes no liability for errors or omissions occurring in its directories. Telephone directories are and remain the property of the Telephone Company. Subscribers are furnished with one copy of the telephone directory for each telephone set installed. When the use of the service by any party line subscriber is excessive to a point to prevent a fair and proportionate use by other subscribers, the telephone company may require the subscriber to contract for another grade of service or terminate the service of such a subscriber. The telephone company may limit conversations on a party line to five minutes when longer conversations interfere with the use of the service by other subscribers on the line.
13. PAYMENT FOR SERVICE: Telephone accounts are due when rendered. Accounts unpaid thirty days from the date of account shall be given seven days' notice after which time service will be suspended. A reconnection charge will be assessed.

License Provisions, Rules, and Regulations

License

A license, in accordance with Department of Communications regulations, is required to operate each mobile or base-radio unit. These licenses must be renewed each year (in all cases a fee is involved). All licenses must be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or vehicle.

Inspection

The radio equipment must be made available for inspection upon request by representatives of the Department of Communications.

HF-SSB Radio Operating Instructions

- Turn on your radio unit.
- After a few minutes warm up, determine if the channel is in use by listening for conversation. Please do not interrupt conversation unless you wish to report an emergency.
- Depress your microphone transmitter (turn on your transmitter) and voice call the CNT terminal you wish to reach.
eg: "CFY79 Fort Nelson from CU356". (Repeat if necessary.)
- When contact with the operator is established, the operator will request your registration point, identifier and details of your call. eg: "CU356 registered at Fort Nelson calling Fort St. John 785-9191".
- When the called party is reached, commence using the handset button on a "push-to-talk" and "release-to-listen" basis.
- Incoming calls will arrive via the Mobile Service Operator at your closest terminal. The operator will announce your identifier as follows:
"Fort Nelson Mobile Service Operator calling Station CU 356."
- Upon receipt of this call, it is only necessary to acknowledge receipt. eg: "This is CU 356". When connected to the calling party proceed as in (5) above.

Language

It is unlawful to transmit any obscene, indecent, or profane language.

Privacy

It is unlawful to "listen in" on conversations intended for others and divulge any information thereby obtained.

It is unlawful to depress microphone button when channel is busy or when you do not wish to place a call. Such practices constitute "deliberate interference" and penalties are severe.

- H.F. Communications is subject to loss of signal (called fading) due to atmospheric conditions. This condition can vary from hour-to-hour and from day-to-day. When communications are lost due to the above on one frequency, try a different frequency or wait until conditions improve. It is suggested, that if regular traffic is to be passed that a schedule be established by contacting a Mobile Service Operator at any of our CNT Terminals.

PARTY LINE RINGING - To call a party on your line dial the number desired and when busy signal is heard hang up. The bell on your telephone and the bell on the called party's telephone will ring intermittently until your call is answered. When your bell stops ringing the called party has answered. Remove the receiver and speak. If your bell does not stop ringing after a reasonable period it indicates there is no one to answer at the called telephone. To stop the ringing raise receiver momentarily from cradle or hook then replace.

INSTRUCTIONS

TO CALL ANOTHER PARTY ON YOUR LINE—If you are on a two party, lift the receiver and dial 6191. When you hear the busy tone hang the receiver up. The bell on your own telephone as well as the party wanted will ring intermittently until your call is answered. When your bell stops ringing this indicates the called party has answered. Remove the receiver and proceed with your conversation. If your bell does not stop ringing after a reasonable period it indicates there is no one to answer at the called telephone. Remove your receiver for a few seconds then hang up. This will stop your bell from ringing and disconnect you from the called telephone.

MULTI-PARTY LINES—(more than two parties). If subscriber is on a multi-party line and wishes to call another party on his line lift receiver and dial directory listed number of party called. When busy signal is heard hang up and telephone will commence ringing with called party's ringing code or with a short ring every six seconds. When either type ringing stops called party has answered. Lift receiver and speak. If ringing continues indefinitely called party is not available to answer. To stop ringing lift receiver momentarily from cradle then replace.

This will stop your bell from ringing and disconnect you from the called telephone.

THE POSTAL CODE MOVES THE MAIL

To take advantage of mechanical mail sortation, Canadian Provinces and Territories were postal coded in 1973. Every resident was assigned a six digit code. It is part of his street address and he assumes a new one when he moves. The letter/numeral combination identifies the part of Canada and the section within that part to which the address applies. Although there may be two identical street addresses in Canada, the six digit code combination automatically directs a letter to the correct delivery area.

HELP YOURSELF-USE THE CODE

All pieces of mail should carry the postal code of the sender and the addresses, since use of the correct code reduces the chance of mis-direction and speeds handling. The Canada Post Office provides a free service for coding mailing lists and maintains directories listing all the codes in Canada. Only standard letter size envelopes can be machine sorted. They measure 3½ by 5½ in.; 4⅛ by 9½ in.; 4¾ by 9¼ in. and 6 by 10 in.

Five simple steps to help streamline your mail processing

Addressing areas for all sizes of Standard Letter-size items
Note: Envelope - not to scale

1 This section is for your return address and Post Office stickers (e.g. special delivery).

2 This section is for postage stamps or postal meter impressions. Please do not affix stamps or imprint outside this area.

3 The address may be typed anywhere in sections 3 & 4. Please keep all subscription and accounting numbers and "attention" instructions in section 3, as the POSTAL CODE must appear as the last entry of your address.

4 The POSTAL CODE must appear in section 4. It may be typed either as the last line of the address (see sample mailing address above) or on the same line as the city & province of destination, but please leave at least two character spaces after the name of the province (see sample return address above).

5 Please leave this space entirely blank. It's the machine sorting code band.

NOTE: Postal Stations and Post Offices are listed in the Telephone Directory under Governments - Canada - Canada Post Office.

AN APARTMENT NUMBER IS A NECESSARY PART OF A POSTAL ADDRESS

Two friendly telephone habits
... QUICK to answer when your telephone rings; SLOW to hang up when you call someone who
does not immediately respond.
When calling others, remember that the called person may be almost there . . . so wait a few seconds longer.

Edmonton?
Stay at the 25-Star Hotel.

The star system for hotels is only arbitrary, there's a lot it can't tell you about us. For instance: The Hotel Macdonald has hosted more guests than any other Edmonton hotel because it's been here longer, which also makes it Edmonton's most experienced hotel. Outside, the Macdonald may appear sedate, yet inside it's a swinging place, the city's most exciting night spot. Next time you're coming to Edmonton, try the city's most experienced hotel. If you're awarding stars for merit, 25 may not be enough for the Mac.

Two friendly telephone habits
... QUICK to answer when your
telephone rings; SLOW to hang up when you call someone who
does not immediately respond.
When calling others, remember
that the called person may be
almost there . . . so wait a few
seconds longer.

MANUFACTURED HOMES

If you're going to build a home, it will pay you to investigate
Beaver Homes. The savings in time and money are substantial.

A Beaver Home is an architect-designed home, built to precise specifications in one of Beaver's four home manufacturing plants. Only top-quality lumber and materials are used in the construction of Beaver Homes. The benefits of volume purchasing and precision factory production combine to deliver a quality home at less cost than any other building method.

Telex speeds your communications with any world business center

You just dial and type and your message will be read in the United States, in Europe or wherever else you want to send it.

To any of 200,000 business offices around the world, including the Canadian Telex network of more than 27,000

If there's no one there to read your message, the machine records it and keeps it until someone arrives. (Which effectively eliminates the problem of time-zone differences.)

Why not call your nearest Canadian National Telecommunications office and find out how easily and inexpensively Telex can put you in instant written touch with the rest of the business world?
