WHITEHORSE, YUKON,

FRIDAY, MARCH 6th, 1942

Subscription $3.00 Year.

WHITEHORSE UNIT AGAIN ACHIEVES AN ENVIABLE RECORD IN VICTORY LOAN DRIVE.

For the second time the Whitehorse unit has achieved an enviable record in subscriptions secured in the Second Victory Loan campaign which officially closes tomorrow.

The Whitehorse unit was the first in the British Columbia Yukon division to pass its allotted quota of $35,000, and this position was held for several days before any others accomplished a similar feat. At this writing (Thursday) the total amount secured by the Whitehorse unit is $66,500. The latest figures available at the time of going to press will be found on page 6 of this issue.

We extend to Mayo heartiest congratulations for their remarkable success realizing as we do the conditions prevailing at that camp at the present time. On a percentage basis Mayo ranks a little higher than Whitehorse according to latest figures available with 210 1/2 for Mayo as compared with 190 1/6 for Whitehorse.

The outstanding event in connection with this campaign was the contest staged by our local committee, the drawing for which took place at the W. H. Theatre last Saturday night at the conclusion of the show. The number of tickets sold enabled the committee to award six prizes, each being a fully paid up $50 Victory Bond. Keen excitement prevailed as Miss Audrey Ryder picked out the winning tickets from the nicely decorated revolving ballot box, with the familiar insignia V . . . —conspicuously painted upon it, and handed same to Mr. I. Taylor, the chairman of the local committee who called out the numbers of the tickets as they were presented to him and also the names of the lucky winners. Mr. George Ryder acted as scrutineer and Mr. Fred Dunn decorated the blackboard on the stage with the numbers of the tickets. The prize winners, with the number of their tickets, were as follows:—

Albert Taylor	257
Don Murray	183
Joan Greenslade	436
J. Barber, Snr.	109
Mrs. Don Murray	182
Mrs. W. D. MacBride	58

The committee takes this opportunity of expressing to all subscribers to the new Victory Bonds their deep appreciation for the ready response accorded them in the course of their canvas and also for the cordial co-operation extended to them on this occasion.

In order to double our quota only approximately $3,000 is required.

The campaign closes tomorrow night and the local committee is

BRITAIN HELD 1,276 U-BOAT PRISONERS ON NOVEMBER 4.

On Germany's own admission, most of her crack U-Boat Commanders are now either sunk or captured, including Prien who sank the "Royal Oak" and Shenke. The British Admiralty announced in a communique on November 4 that a total of 1,276 officers and men had been rescued from sunken enemy U-Boats and are held as prisoners of war including 467 Italians German submarine crews recently captured, photographed under armed guard.

DALADIER FORMER FRENCH PREMIER NOW ON TRIAL PROUD THAT HE NAMED DeGAULLE A GENERAL.

RIOM, France—Former Premier Edouard Daladier announced defiantly at the war guilt trial Friday that France had more tanks than Germany for the western front campaign of May, 1940, and he praised Gen. Charles DeGaulle, mechanized-warfare advocate and now Free French leader, "whom I am proud to have named a general"

He said the French high command for years refused to listen to the argument of De Gaulle and other younger generals that tanks should be used as a spearhead of attack rather than isolated units to accompany infantry advance.

France had 3,600 tanks and 500 armoured cars available whereas Germany used only 2,000 tanks in the campaign, the war-time premier said.

"But our leaders did not believe in them," he said. "They were placed way behind our troops, too far off to be of any use."

The French tanks, he said, were dispersed all over the front in small groups of three or four.

most anxious, if possible, to raise this extra amount within the time limit. Those who have not yet subscribed for the bonds are urgently requested to put in their applications without further delay

BRITISH LABOR PARTY DEMAND "TOTAL VICTORY" BUT ARE OPPOSED TO "REVENGEFUL PEACE."

Breaking from its pacifist attitude of the past the British Labor Party has now gone on record demanding "total victory" in the war, stern punishment and permanent disarmament of the axis nations but are opposed to what it terms a revengeful peace.

The other three points set forth in the manifesto are:—

- 1—Each enemy people shall be entitled to determine its own form of government subject only to its obligation to accept and respect the "four freedoms"
- 2—The victorious nations must not be allowed to suppress revolutions in the beaten countries, regardless of whether they are against class, religion or the ruling dynasty so long as they are to establish democratic regimes.
- 3—The "complex issues of Indian self government" must wait until after the war for solution, but the Indians must take their full place now alongside the Dominions in directing the war effort

Mr. Chapman, manager of the Northern Commercial Co's store in Dawson, arrived in town Saturday by Y. S. A. T. plane from the coast where he has been spending the past month. He left later by plane for the Gold City.

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER L. A. VINAL DIED SUDDENLY MONDAY IN DOWN-TOWN STORE.

It was a great shock to this community when it became known that at about 5 o'clock Monday our assistant postmaster, Mr L. A. Vinal, died suddenly in the store of Burns & Co., Ltd. the result of a heart attack.

Deceased had called at the post office to transact some business just previous to arriving at the meat market and it was whilst conversing with his friend Gordon Armstrong there that he collapsed and fell to the floor. He passed away within a very few minutes without recovering consciousness. We are informed that just before he collapsed he told Gordon that he had recently received a letter from his sister who he had not heard from for 23 years.

The funeral service was held at Christ Church under the auspices of the local branch of the Canadian Legion (B.E.S.L.) the Rev. L. G. Chappell officiating. The large congregation in attendance and the floral tributes which were placed upon the flag-covered coffin were a silent tribute to the memory of one who had spent many years in this community. Interment took place at the local cemetery Messrs. H. Dalglish, J. A. Simmons, Karl Brydon, W. D. MacBride, Corpl. B. Allan and Const. H. J. Macdonald, R.C.M.P. acting as pallbearers.

The late Mr. Vinal was born in Lincolnshire, England, and celebrated his 60th birthday last October. He came into the Territory about 1903 and for a number of years was a member of the R. N. W. M. P. For the past twelve years approximately he has been assistant postmaster at the local post office. He was also a veteran of the First Great War.

Only recently he had returned from a trip to the coast and was spending the remainder of his vacation making improvements to his house.

He leaves to mourn his loss his mother who at present is residing in Bayswater, London, England, and a sister, Mrs. Irene Newton, of Toronto, Ont., to whom sincerest sympathy is extended.

SUN SPOTS HAVE BEEN PLAYING HAVOC WITH RADIO RECEPTION LATELY.

Scientists announce that severe magnetic disturbances caused by an unusually large and active sun spot passing across the surface of the sun has been responsible for the poor radio reception of late. This fact, coupled with other disturbances of a more local nature, have certainly put radio owners in this community on edge.

WITHIN THE VORTEX

Like a whirlpool the war is drawn in nearly every part of the civilized world within its vortex. Such is its magnitude. Many parts are now under the baneful influence of enemy forces. With what untold anguish, and physical torture we may never know. Horrible as are the conditions as presented in the illustrated press or described over the radio these are but poor media upon which to formulate any adequate conception of the greatest tragedy the world has ever known. Many hitherto prosperous states, populated by peace-loving people, are today all but wiped out of existence with their government's functioning as best they may on foreign but nevertheless friendly soil whilst the existence of others is being seriously jeopardized. The tension of the conflict is now being accelerated to such an extent that its reverberations are today affecting the whole world. What lies ahead of us during the next few months none can foresee. The crucial moment when the enemy forces can be out-flanked has not yet arrived.

Under such critical conditions it is worse than useless to dwell upon the mistakes of the past or to assume that others will not be made in the future.

Criticism, unless of a truly constructive nature, affects a defeatist attitude toward the end we have in view and this in turn tends to weaken the morale of a people. It is therefore the worst attitude for any of us to assume at any time or under any circumstances. It certainly will not help us in winning the war; rather will it tend to retard concerted effort on our part and this is what is most needed at this time.

What the times demand is not carping criticism of governments and individuals but united action of the people as a whole and this can only be secured if and when each of us direct our efforts toward the winning of the war.

Wisdom dictates that criticism by the populace be deferred until after we have decisively secured a lasting victory. By that time we shall all be in possession of more accurate information than we now have. We shall then be in a better position to judge more fairly and equitably the actions of those who in recent years have borne the brunt of the heat and burden of our times. And not until the war has concluded shall we be able to perceive in kaleidoscopic manner the happenings of our times in their true perspective.

CORRESPONDENCE

The following two letters are self-explanatory as well as interesting in that they disclose a genuine appreciation by the recipients in England of parcels of clothing etc., received by them from this continent. The child's letter is well written in large bold letters on paper ruled by herself:

Rigmaden Park,
2, 1, '42.

Dear Mrs. ———
Thank you very much for the warm blanket which you sent to us. We have had toys, books and clothes from America. I am wearing some nice slippers from U.S.A. and I have a pretty black baby dolly from a little girl in New York.
I am seven years old. My brother Leslie lives here, he is five. We had a very happy Christmas. We had two parties. Syd the sorcerer did magic tricks for us. I hope you had a Happy Christmas and that you will have good New Year.
With love and best wishes from

Dear Mrs. ———
When you gave your blanket did you wonder where it would find a bed? When I opened our parcel of bedding from Canada and U. S. A. I was thrilled to see a blanket had come to us from such a great dis-ance. It makes one feel the world is a very friendly place, war or no war.

The children are evacuated from Barrow-in-Furness. Their ages range from five to seven years, so they don't get on very quickly with letter-writing just yet.

We live and have school in part of a mansion here. The country round about is very beautiful, there are lovely trees. Many of the children are seeing rabbits, squirrels and pheasants at close quarters for the first time in their lives.

They are a very happy band of children and the have had a lively Christmas. They have made good friends with the children of the village about two miles away. We have had parties together and it has made a happy change for us all.

I hope you too have had a very Happy Christmas, and that 1942 will bring us all to happier times.

Yours very sincerely,
ISABELLA CHILDS,
Teacher in charge.

We are in receipt of a letter from Alec. Halkett, who is well known here as the first mate on the str Casca, that he and his bride are for the present aboard the hospital ship "John Antle" which is operated by the Columbia Coast Mission. Rev. Alan D. Greene is superintendent. He reports the boat is a converted fish packer, 55 feet in length and very comfortable. Alec has signed up for three months after which he expects to return north for the season and bring his wife with him.

OUTLOOK OMINOUS FOR MAYO CAMP.

An interim statement issued by president Bradley of the Treadwell-Yukon Corporation to its shareholders outlines a proposal that they give consideration to liquidation. In the event of dissolution the company's operation at Mayo will be discontinued.

NEWS FROM RED CROSS OUTPOST HOSPITALS

Ceal Lake Red Cross Outpost, in the Peace River country is now the proud possessor of a "covered cutter." This is especially needed in winter for the one nurse who has to cover a district of 65 square miles. It is not only a great convenience for her, but for the patients whom she has to bring to the hospital.

The matron of Zeballos Outpost reports: "The year closed with one of the coldest spells in history. It was so cold that the supper of the New Year's frolic in the town had to be served without coffee owing to frozen water in the pipes. Hospital pipes were also frozen but a blow torch soon had the water running again. This hospital left the Red Cross Outpost family at the end of the year, the community now being able to take it over. Two sailors from a corvette on the West Coast were recently admitted as patients into the Camfield Outpost—one suffering from a septic throat, the other bronchitis. They responded rapidly to treatment.

Nurses of Outpost Hospital staffs have been organizing and giving instructions to the Red Cross Home Nursing and Emergency War classes. In Bamfeld enthusiasm and interest in the classes have extended to the men.

OLDEST RED CROSS WORKER MOST FAITHFUL

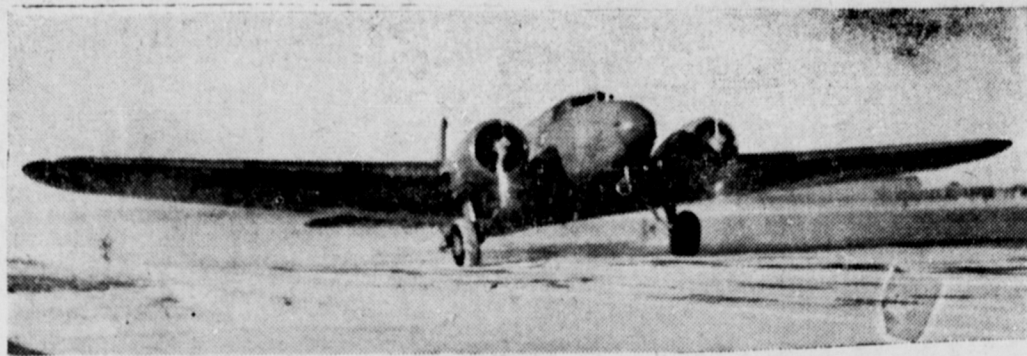

"Mrs. A. Peterson, a member of the Red Cross Committee at Quatsino, on the north west coast of Vancouver Island is not only the oldest but the most faithful worker," writes Mrs. H. G. Dane, secretary. Mrs. Petersen is 81 years old and her large number of knitted articles are especially welcome because of the few knitters in the group. Mrs. Petersen supervises all the work turned in and her standards are the highest.

BOUGHT OUT TOWN'S HANDKERCHIEF SUPPLY

Lillooet branch answered the Red Cross appeal for handkerchiefs for Britain by buying out the town's supply of medium priced handkerchiefs and raising an additional $15.00, which was sent to Provincial Red Cross Headquarters to purchase more.

B. C. RED CROSS GIVEN THREE AMBULANCES

Three ambulances have been given to the B. C. Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society. That presented by Mr. J. W. Miller last December has arrived and is in action. The other given by the P. E. O. Sorority is expected soon. A third has also been promised.

A YUKON SOUTHERN TEN-PASSENGER AIRLINER

During the recent "black-out" test in Edmonton, military and air raid patrol officials observed the test from a Yukon Southern Air Transport plane which circled the city as the lights were extinguished in the various sections. Along with the officials were newspaper representatives and a commentator and announcer from radio station CJCA, who gave a running description of the progress of the event. Although not perfect, the test was pronounced a success by those in charge, and showed the willingness of the citizenry to co-operate with the government in defence measures.
