GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S FIRST VISIT TO ALASKA IN R. C. A. F. BOMBER

His Excellency the Earl of Athlone, Governor-General of Canada made his first visit into Alaska Tuesday when he personally piloted, part of the way, a R. C. A. F. amphibian bomber from Prince Rupert to an air base outpost in south-eastern Alaska. At the air-base on Alaskan soil, which is manned by Canadians, His Excellency and his party had luncheon and witnessed a demonstration of anti-aircraft fire by a battery directed by Capt. S. F. Maunsell of Vancouver and Lt. James of Winnipeg. His Excellency also observed a striking example of international co-operation between the United States of America and Canada in the defence of the Pacific Coast.

ALASKA HIGHWAY DATA FURNISHED BY U. S. ARMY CHIEF-OF-STAFF

In a report made public by General George Marshall, United States Army Chief-of-Staff, the cost of the Alaska Highway was estimated at $1,500,000,000. He revealed that 10,000 American troops were used in the construction of the highway between March and October 1942. "Improvements currently under way" the report continued "provide for a road-bed 26 feet wide with surfacing from 20 to 22 feet wide. Current improvements are scheduled for completion by December 31 next and will be largely carried out by contract labor. The estimated cost of the highway, as given above, includes the replacement of a considerable number of temporary structures destroyed during the spring thaw. Local materials, including gravel and crushed stone, will be utilized in the surfacing.

MARSHAL STALIN ANNOUNCES DONETS BASIN CLEARED OF GERMANS.

Concurrently with the world-wide announcement of the surrender of Italy Marshal Stalin triumphantly announced "the Donets basin is cleared of the Germans.—our troops captured a number of cities, including the city of Stalino, the result of skilled manoeuvres and a determined offensive in the last six days."

Officers and staff of the Command were hosts to their invited guests at a cocktail party and dinner. Senators James G. Scrugham of New C. Douglas Buck of Delaware, William Langer of North Dakota and Major-General Philip D. Fleming of Washington, D. C., returned from a trip to Fairbanks in time to grace

CHURCHILL CONGRATULATES CANADIANS

As hostilities between the United Nations and Italy officially ceased Prime Minister Winston Churchill wired the Canadian Prime Minister "My congratulations on the Canadian advance." Few words but right from the heart of a man who is fully conscious of the splendid achievements of our Armed Forces.

OTTAWA CELEBRATES ITALIAN SURRENDER BY PLAYING CARILLON.

The playing of the carillon in the Peace Tower of the parliament buildings, the ringing of church bells, and a salute of guns from Parliament Hill, marked the reception in Ottawa of the surrender of Italy on Wednesday. The nation-wide celebration by the Navy, Army and Air Forces, which was to have "gone on the air" that day was cancelled.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S MEMORABLE STATEMENT OF UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF ITALY.

Here is the text of General Dwight D. Eisenhower's statement announcing the capitulation of Italy on Friday September 3, 1943:

"This is General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Commander-in-Chief of the Allied forces.

The Italian government has surrendered its armed forces unconditionally.

As Allied Commander-in-Chief I have granted a military armistice the terms of which have been approved by the governments of the United Kingdom, the United States, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Thus I am acting in the interest of the United Nations. The Italian government has bound itself to abide by these terms without reservation.

The armistice was signed by my representative and the representative of Marshal Badoglio, and it becomes effective this instant.

Hostilities between the armed forces of the United Nations and those of Italy terminate at once. All Italians who now act to eject the German aggressors from Italian soil will have the assistance and the support of the United Nations."

Admiral Sir Andrew Browne Cunningham, Allied Naval Commander, immediately appealed to the Italian fleet to keep their ships out of German hands.

The Italian capitulation came five days after the Eighth Army of British and Canadian troops first invaded the Italian mainland and thus brought General Sir Bernard Montgomery's historic march from El Alamein to a triumphant climax.

MINESWEEPER DESTROYED IN ALEUTIANS BY ITS OWN DEPTH CHARGES.

The United States Navy announced last week the loss of the minesweeper Wasmuth in the Aleutians last December after it had been wrecked by the explosion of two of its own depth charges which had been wrenched from their racks by a 30 mile gale. They exploded under the fantail of the vessel and blew away a portion of its aft section. The nine officers, 125 men and two passengers were rescued.

President Roosevelt stated at his press conference Tuesday that progress had been made since he was in Quebec towards arranging a tripartite conference with Soviet Premier Josef Stalin and he expected further progress in the immediate future.

WATCHING THE BREAK-UP

With the capitulation of Italy the war assumes a new phase with the positions of the contending forces, at least to some extent, reversed. Four years ago we were wholly on the defensive without any opportunity of being able to stem the onslaught of the enemy. During these unforgettable four years we have witnessed one country after another fall victim to their rapacious aggressors. Never before in all recorded history has such ruthlessness been perpetrated upon such a colossal scale. Truly the whole world became embroiled in the conflict or has suffered disastrously as a direct result of its repercussions.

So rapid and dramatic were the successes of our enemies at the outset, each following the other in quick succession, that at times there was an expressed or implied doubt in the minds of many as to whether or not our enemies could be eventually and effectively conquered.

Today we are in a position to tell a different story for the tide has now turned definitely in favour of the United Nations. With Italy subdued and the Mediterranean again under Allied control the Axis must assuredly observe "the handwriting on the wall" and perceive that it is now only a matter of time before they, too, will have to submit to unconditional surrender.

Whilst the surrender of Italy can be rightly regarded as a cause for congratulation, not only for ourselves but also for the Italian people, let us not be misled into the belief that the war will soon be over. It will be more accurate, and probably more in accordance with the known facts, rather to regard the surrender of Italy as another step forward toward the desired end. It is, in fact, quite within the range of possibility that the greatest battles are yet to be fought. Don't forget that the Fuehrer recently celebrated his tenth anniversary as czar of the Reich by issuing a decree that every German male between 16 and 65 and every German woman between the ages of 17 and 45 must get into war work of whatever kind may be assigned to them. It is taken for granted that the gestapo and storm troopers will make sure that such decree is implicitly complied with. All of which should convince us that the Nazis have no intention as yet of showing the "white feather" and that "unconditional surrender" means nothing to the Germans as yet. This is a lesson they have yet to learn and it isn't going to be an easy lesson for us to teach them—not by a long shot—but its got to be done.

FIVE-POINT PROGRAM OUTLINED ON CANADIAN FOREIGN POLICY.

In addressing a group of Canadian and United States newspapermen at Washington, Brooke Claxton, parliamentary assistant to prime minister Mackenzie King, laid down the following five-point program as his version of Canada's foreign policy for the future:

1. Promotion of co-operation between Britain and the United States.
2. Co-operation with the United States in the protection of the North American continent and of Britain which, in this day of rapid transport, should be regarded as an outpost and bastion of this continent.
3. Formation of some permanent organization of the United Nations as soon as possible.
4. Representation of the individual United Nations on wartime boards and commissions on a functional basis.
5. Promotion of freer trade in the post-war world and the freer interchange of goods.

It is Mr. Claxton's expressed belief that Canada, more than any other country, is dependent for future greatness and prosperity on a world system of collective security. Quizzed by U. S. newspapermen as to whether or not Canada was willing to abandon the restrictive trade policies embodied in the trade agreements of 1932, Claxton replied he believed the Canadian people would be willing to abandon such restrictions providing mutual arrangements on a wider scale could be substituted. He pointed out that in any event the Ottawa agreements have already been modified by war conditions to such an extent as to render them practically in a state of suspended animation.

Synopsis of Mining Law Yukon Territory

Any person eighteen years of age or over shall have the right to enter, locate, prospect and mine upon any lands in the Yukon Territory, whether vested in the Crown or otherwise, for the minerals defined in the Yukon Quartz Mining Act and the Yukon Placer Mining Act, with certain reservations set out in the said Acts.

No person shall enter for mining purposes or shall mine upon lands owned or lawfully occupied by another until adequate security has been furnished to the satisfaction of the Mining Recorder for any loss or damage which may be thereby caused.

Where claims are being located which are situated more than one hundred miles from the Mining Recorder's office, the locators, not less than five in number, are authorized to meet and appoint one of their number as emergency recorder, who shall as soon as possible deliver the application and fees received to the Mining Recorder for the District.

If two or more persons own a claim, each such person shall contribute proportionately to his interest to the work required to be done thereon, and when proven to the Gold Commissioner that he has not done so his interest may be vested in the other co-owners.

The survey of a claim made by a duly qualified Dominion Land Surveyor shall be accepted as defining absolutely the boundaries of the claim surveyed, provided the survey is approved by the proper authority and remains unopposed during the period of advertisement.

A person about to undertake a bona fide prospecting trip may secure from the Mining Recorder written permission to record at his own risk a claim within six months.

A legal post must stand four feet above the ground, squared or faced for the upper eighteen inches and measuring four inches across the faced portion. The post must be firmly fixed in the ground.

Priority of location shall be deemed to convey priority of right. Certain disputes may be heard and determined by a Board of Arbitrators.

Grants of claims grouped or owned by one person may be made renewable on the same date.

PLACER MINING

Creeks means any natural water course having an average width of less than one hundred and fifty feet between its banks.

Creek claims shall not exceed five hundred feet in length, measured along the base line by one thousand feet on each side of the base line. Other claims shall not exceed five hundred feet in length by one thousand feet in depth. Claims shall be as nearly as possible rectangular in form and shall be marked by two legal posts, one at each end of the claim, numbered "1" and "2" respectively. Location posts of creek claims shall be placed on the base line, and of all other claims parallel to the base line, and on the side of the claim nearest the creek or river towards which it fronts.

A discoverer shall be entitled to a claim 1,500 feet in length, and a party of two discoverers two claims, each of 1,250 feet in length.

The boundaries of any claim may be enlarged to the size of a claim allowed by the Act, if the enlargement does not interfere with the rights of other persons or terms of any agreement with the crown.

An application for a claim may be filed with the Mining Recorder within ten days after being located if within ten miles of the Recorder's office. One extra day shall be allowed for every additional ten miles or fraction thereof. A claim may be located on Sunday or any public holiday.

Any person having recorded a claim shall not have the right to locate another claim in the valley or basin of same creek within sixty days of locating first claim.

Title

GROUPING

Under certain conditions claims may be grouped and the work required to be performed to entitle the owner or owners to renewals of the several claims grouped may be performed on any one or more of the claims in the grouping. If the claims grouped are owned by more than one person a partnership agreement creating a joint and several liability on the part of all the owners for the joint working of the claims shall be executed and filed with the Mining Recorder.
