SICILY, THE ALLIED INVASION FORCES LANDS

Towards the end of July the major part of Sicily was in Allied hands. Since the invasion began on July 10th, the Allies had captured the majority of the Sicilian aerodromes, well over 70,000 prisoners and a vast amount of war material. The British Navy played a big part in the initial landings. Picture shows Glimose of the invasion coast as an armoured vehicle was being towed ashore from landing craft.

SERGT. HEAD EARLY PIONEER OF THE NORTH PASSES AT TERRACE, B. C.

Word has been received in Whitehorse to the effect that Sergt. Archibald Head passed away recently at his home in Terrace, B. C., but no details are available at this writing.

The late Sergt. Head was an old-timer in the Yukon being a member of the Royal North West Mounted Police in the early days and later of the R. C. M. P. For many years he was stationed at the barracks in Whitehorse and many of the old-timers throughout the Yukon will learn with regret of his passing. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and three daughters to whom sympathy is extended on behalf of their many friends in the north.

FOX IS APPOINTED MANAGER OF LOCAL SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICE

On February 24 last Mr. J. Fox was appointed manager of the local Employment and Selective Service office of the Unemployment Commission which position was formerly held by the late Mr. Menzies. The new manager first arrived in the Territory in 1933 and for a number of years was in the employ of the B. Y. N. Co., in various capacities. He is therefore well-known locally. In March last year he joined the local staff of the Controller of the Treasury, (Dept. of Finance) which position he held until his new appointment which was made from the eligible list of applicants. When the examination was held and the late Mr. Menzies secured the appointment Mr. Fox ranked second amongst the applicants. His friends in the Yukon wish him every success in his new appointment.

Mr. R. M. Boyd, auditor for the Northern Commercial Co. Ltd., arrived in town by plane yesterday from Fairbanks accompanied by Mrs. Boyd. They will be remaining here for several weeks during the absence of Capt. Bernier who is leaving for the Outside in the near future.

Joe Lamb is holding an auction sale Friday, March 10 at 2 p. m. opposite Bennett & White's yard.

FLT.-LT. R. E. MACFARLANE R. C. A. F. REPORTED KILLED IN ACTION OVERSEAS.

Through the medium of the International Red Cross word was received by Mr and Mrs. John Macfarlane of Chilliwack, B. C., to the effect that their son, Flt.-Lieut. "Ronnie" Macfarlane, DFM, had lost his life in action over enemy territory on December 16 last. This information was of German origin. Pending additional information R.C.A.F. authorities have reported him as missing, believed dead. He was 21 years of age.

Flt.-Lieut. Macfarlane was awarded the D.F.M. in January 1943 when, as captain of a Lancaster bomber returning from a Ruhr raid, he was attacked by three Junkers 88's. He dived to 80 feet over the English Channel to escape the searchlight and flak, and then sighted five other fighters but managed to fly his aircraft back to Britain.

He enlisted in the air force in February 1941 and during his stay in England had been a guest at Buckingham Palace. His two brothers, Ian and Murray, are in the employ of the W. P. & Y. R. at Whitehorse.

R. F. BAKER, ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT, C.P.A. ALBERTA-YUKON DIV. HEADQUARTERS WHITEHORSE.

Mr. R. F. Baker, recently appointed assistant superintendent of the Alberta-Yukon Division for the Canadian Pacific Air Lines Ltd., arrived in Whitehorse last week where his headquarters are now located. Last Sunday he and Mr. J. Barber, traffic superintendent, made a business trip to Dawson and this coming Sunday they will leave for Fairbanks.

JAMES LIPSCOMB, YUKON PIONEER PASSES AWAY AT CAMPBELL RIVER, B. C.

Word was received in town this week that James Lipscomb had passed away at Campbell River, B. C., in his 78th year. In the early days he was in the service of the W. P. & Y. R. here for several years as telegraphist. He was also the company's representative in Atlin, B. C., for a number of years. He was, we are informed, a bachelor and at the time of his passing was government telegraph operator at Powell River.

Mr. A. E. Hardy, manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, returned home last Saturday from his trip to Fort Norman. It was quite an experience and we hope to be able to publish the story in these columns in the near future.

THE SALT OF THE EARTH

The people who did the pioneering work in the development of this country were inspired by a great yet simple faith and a consuming passion which raised them above the petty personal jealousies and prejudices of everyday life. Their foundations were "well and truly laid" and we of today are the benefactors of their labours

The spirit which motivated these early pioneers and the simple faith in their Maker and their fellow-men lives on through the corridors of time and burnishes as if with gold
all that is best in human nature
Those who are today endowed with such a spirit are to be found in every strata of humanity. In a quiet and unobtrusive manner they journey on through life little heeded by the surging masses. Nevertheless, they are the salt of the earth. Their labours may not have been fully comprehended or appreciated in their day and generation but their influence for good has been perpetuated down through the ages

It is significant that from the common stock of humanity have arisen some of the greatest benefactors the world has ever known.
Many instances may be cited to demonstrate where ordinary everyday people inspired with lofty ideals and a strong determination to labour for the common good, have played a major part in the moulding of human character or in shaping the destiny of nations To cite but one outstanding instance we refer to the life work of Florence Nightingale whose self-imposed labours throughout the Crimean wars gave rise to the formation of the greatest humanitarian organization the world has ever known—the Red Cross Society.
What a cause and what a monument!

We have with us today, in various walks of life, many whose names are unknown to the general public but whose quiet influence, nevertheless, is a great moral force in their own particular sphere of activity. They are the salt of the earth. May their type be perpetuated as long as humanity exists.

TIME BOMBS

Every tomorrow has its roots in yesterday. We must search our heritage to find our destiny.

When the order comes "Cease firing!"—we must keep on shooting for the kind of world we fought for.

Folks who get tempermental should remember that it is usually more temper than mental.

To fight for the security of any man or nation, fight for the integrity of men and nations.

It's the little things that bother,
And put us on the rack.
You can sit upon a mountain
But not upon a tack.

G A. JEKELL,
Controller.

HERE is evidence that cannot be denied . . . unsolicited praise for Red Cross straight from the hearts of repatriated war prisoners, men who have been through it and know from first hand experience just what it is all about.

Thousands of their comrades are still in enemy hands. Help Red Cross bring each one of them back with the same wonderful story to tell, a story of Red Cross light in the very shadow of death.

R.C.A.F. OPPOSED TO DIRECT VOTE PLAN

Introduction of a system of direct voting for members of the armed forces overseas in the next Federal election would deprive a large number of the R. C. A. F. personnel of their franchise. This statement was made this week by Air Minister Power to the Commons election act committee. Whilst he, personally, favoured direct voting, rather than a proxy system, he stated that it would present tremendous difficulties because of the wide disbursement of members of the R. C. A. F. It would probably be impossible to reach all of these men to enable them to appoint a proxy, he added. The most complete method would be to allow the names of every man to be put on the voters list by his next-of-kin and then advise the men they had an opportunity to name an alternative proxy should they desire to do so.

NAZI SECRET WEAPON PROVES A WASH-OUT

The German secret weapon which has been so much publicized with a view of striking terror into the hearts of the Allies, proves to be a wash-out according to reports received from Allied headquarters at Naples. It is a radio-controlled miniature tank, carrying 1000 pounds of explosives, and designed to be directed against certain chosen targets which are blown up by remote control. From the Anzio beachhead below Rome, where some of them were encountered, they are described as "poor specimens" of tanks. It was also stated that although the wheels went around alright the tanks often failed to move forward. "Tanks" for the information!

SOVIET PEACE TERMS OFFERED FINNS RECEIVE BRITISH APPROVAL.

On Tuesday Great Britain approved the peace terms submitted by Russia to Finland demanding that the Finns cease "military operations", break relations with Germany, re-establish 1940 borders and intern all Nazi troops and ships in Finland with or without Soviet assistance. It is reported that the British acceptance of the peace terms came after consultation with Russia as under the terms of the Anglo-Russian alliance "a separate peace cannot be negotiated."

Northwest Service Command

CFWH, the first Army Expeditionary Forces radio station in the Northwest Service Command, went on the air Thursday, February 24, at seven o'clock. The station is operated by and for the soldiers of this district, under the direction of the Special Service Branch.

Station CFWH operates on 1240 kilocycles, standard operating band. Programs will be on the air waves weekday nights Monday to Friday, inclusive, from seven until ten o'clock. Saturdays from seven p. m. until eleven o'clock. Sunday afternoon the station will go on the air at two o'clock and broadcast until ten.

SSgt William O. King is the program director. Cpl. Reynold Van Gelder and Signal Corps and Special Services personnel compose the remainder of the staff.

News while it is news, classical and swing music, soldier shows, and transcribed versions of the favorite programs of the networks are all a part of the daily presentation. The transcriptions, de-commercialized, are furnished by Special Services Division of the War Department of the United States.

A "What's Your State?" bulletin board is a popular feature of the American Red Cross Recreation Center. Pads of paper are mounted on a trio of large boards having the names of all the states, the District of Columbia and Alaska. Soldiers visiting the Red Cross may thus find another "native son" from his favorite town.

Miss Jeanette Samuels, recreation center director, reports that many soldiers ask how to contact people whose names are listed on the roster. "What's Your State?" has formed a new type of get-acquainted club.

Some people make their beds and then lie in them, but Sgt. Walter A. Tempel, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, makes his own barracks and then sleeps in it. Tempel has been in the Yukon and parts of Alaska for fifteen months with the Northwest Service Command along the Alaska Military Highway.

"In that time I've seen plenty of changes," says Tempel with a reflective grin. "Nothing is the same as it was in November of '42."

And Sgt. Tempel should know, for he has been in charge of the construction work in the headquarters company area. Even the barracks the men sleep in were constructed by his crew.

"There wasn't much of an army camp here then" he continues, "just cold, trees, tents and a few shacks. That was a bad winter, '42; worst in years—but the work had to be done. And it was, somehow. Office buildings, barracks and mess halls took form, there weren't very many carpenters or construction men in the gang either."

Tempel's pride and joy is the Headquarters Company Recreation Hall, complete with hardwood floor for dance parties. Movies are shown in the hall three times a week, and a fine stage makes possible personal appearances of USO troupes and soldier shows.

In civilian life he was employed by the Harley Davidson Motor Co., for seven years, then by the City of Milwaukee in a civil service job just prior to his entering the armed forces.

His father, Herman Tempel, lives in Wausau, Wisconsin. Sgt. Tempel makes his home with a brother, William Tempel, at 3301 North 15th street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The Good Conduct Medal for "efficiency, fidelity and exemplary behaviour" has been awarded to Cpl.

William T. Wieman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wieman, 68 Berkeley ave., Bloomfield, New Jersey, the Northwest Service Command announced today.

Cpl. Wieman has already won both the American Defense and American Theatre campaign ribbons. He has been in foreign service along the Alaska Military Highway for thirteen months.

Music is his greatest interest. Even in the Yukon he has joined a dance band, the "Northern Knights", a GI band which plays for dances for officers and enlisted men. He is leaving his post shortly for a tour of Alaska and the Aleutian Islands with a USO troupe.

Wieman attended Sacred Heart and Park Grammar schools and the Bloomfield High school, being graduated in 1939. In school he was active as a football and baseball player in addition to his music. After school he played with the White Horse pro footballers for one season.

In civilian life Cpl. Wieman devoted his time principally to music, playing with a number of good bands in the east. He also worked for Westinghouse Electric in Bloomfield for a time.

Mr. G. R. S. Turner of Atlin, B. C. was a visitor in town this week accompanied by his young son, Ronnie, who suffered a minor injury to his foot which required medical attention Mr. Turner informed us that his wife left hurriedly on the last Princess for the coast due to the serious illness of her father, Mr. Louis Schulz, who was suffering from a paralytic stroke. He still lies critically ill in the Vancouver General Hospital requiring the attention of three nurses for day and night.

Mr. J. Pitches, employment and claims officer of Vancouver regional office, arrived in town recently and will remain here for a short time initiating Mr. Fox into the routine of his office work.

The regular meeting Whitehorse Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held at the home of Miss A. How on Monday next, March 6, at 8 p. m.

Mr. C. J. Rogers president and managing director of the W. P. & Y. R., arrived in Skgaway Wednesday from the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson have arrived back home from the coast where they spent the winter.

At midnight Tuesday meat rationing and meatless Tuesdays were officially declared suspended temporarily. The reason given is because of the surplus now in Canada which cannot be transported to Britain on account of a bottleneck in shipping. Presumably as soon as present transportation conditions are eased and meat supplies can move more freely into export channels rationing will again be applied.
