ORDINANCE

(Assented to December 4th, 1964)

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the said Territory, enacts as follows:

R.O.Y.T.
1958, c.19;
1962 (1st)
c.13.

1. The Companies Ordinance is amended by adding thereto, immediately after section 97 thereof, the following section:

(1) Where any commission, allowance or discount has been paid or made either directly or indirectly by a company to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any debentures of the company required to be registered under the Corporation Securities Registration Ordinance, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any such debentures, the particulars required to be sent for registration under the Corporation Securities Registration Ordinance shall include particulars as to the amount or rate per cent of the commission, discount or allowance so paid or made, but an omission to do so does not affect the validity of the debentures issued.

(2) The deposit of any debentures as security for any debt of the company shall not for the purposes of this section be treated as the issue of the debentures at a discount.

Registration of mortgages and charges.

2. Section 101 of the said Ordinance is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

“101. (1) Every mortgage or charge created by a company and being

- (a) a mortgage or charge on uncalled share capital of the company;
- (b) a mortgage or charge created or evidenced by an instrument that, if executed by an individual, would require registration as a bill of sale;
- (c) a mortgage or charge on any land, wherever situated, or any interest therein;
- (d) a mortgage or charge on any book debts of the company; or
- (e) a floating charge on the undertaking or property of the company, shall, so far as any security on the company's property or undertaking is thereby conferred, be void against bona fide purchasers and mortgagees for valuable consideration, and the liquidator and any creditor of the company, unless the instrument, or a true copy thereof, by which the mortgage or charge is created or evidenced, is registered by filing the same with the Registrar for registration within thirty days after the date of its creation, but without prejudice to any contract or obligation for repayment of the money thereby secured, and when a mortgage or charge becomes void under this section the money secured thereby shall immediately become payable; except that

- (f) where the mortgage or charge is created in the Territory, but comprises property outside the Territory, the instrument creating or purporting to create the mortgage or charge may be registered notwithstanding that further proceedings may be necessary to make the mortgage or charge valid or effectual according to the law of the country in which the property is situated; and
- (g) where a negotiable instrument has been given to secure the payment of any book debts of a company, the deposit of the instrument for the purpose of securing an advance to the company shall not, for the purposes of this section, be treated as a mortgage or charge on those book debts.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a mortgage or charge contained in an instrument that is filed with the Registrar of Corporation Securities under the Corporation Securities Registration Ordinance; and no mortgage or charge on land registered under the Land Titles Act becomes void under subsection (1) by reason of the fact that the mortgage or charge is not registered under that subsection.

(3) The Registrar shall keep a register of all mortgages and charges requiring registration under this section, and shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, enter in the register, with respect to every such mortgage or charge, the date of the same, the amount secured by it, short particulars of the property mortgaged or charged, the names of the mortgagors, and the names of the mortgagees or other persons entitled to the charge.

(4) The Registrar shall give a certificate under his hand of the registration of any mortgage or charge registered in pursuance of this section, stating the amount thereby secured, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this section as to registration have been complied with.

(5) It shall be the duty of the company to register every mortgage or charge created by it requiring registration under this section, but registration of any such mortgage or charge may be affected on the application of any person interested therein; and where the registration is effected on the application of some person other than the company, that person shall be entitled to recover from the company the amount of any fees properly paid by him to the Registrar on the registration.

(6) The register kept in pursuance of this section shall be open to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee, not exceeding twenty-five cents for each inspection.

(7) Every company shall cause a copy of every instrument creating any mortgage or charge requiring registration under this section to be kept at the registered office of the company."

3. Section 106 of the said Ordinance is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"106. Where default is made in the registration of any mortgage or charge, every company, and every director, manager or secretary of a company, and every person knowingly a party to the default is, on conviction, liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for every day during which the default continues." Penalties.

4. The said Ordinance is further amended by adding thereto, immediately after section 111 thereof, the following sections:

"111A. The holding of debentures entitling the holder to a charge on land shall not be deemed to be an interest in land. Charge by debentures.

111B. Where any person knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the delivery of any debenture or certificate of debenture stock requiring registration under the Corporation Securities Registration Ordinance without a copy of the certificate of filing thereunder being endorsed upon the debenture or certificate of debenture stock, he is, without prejudice to any other liability, liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars."
