1. This Act may be cited as the Agricultural Products Act.
2. In this Act,
"agricultural product" means any product of commercial or domestic agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry, bee-keeping, berry-picking, fishing, hunting or other similar activity, grown, raised, harvested, collected, caught, taken, picked, packaged, processed or otherwise produced or processed in Yukon for human consumption including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, meat, honey, fish, poultry, eggs, milk, yogurt, teas, vegetables, nuts, mushrooms, berries, fruit and grains, whether wild or domestic;
"contaminated" means sprayed, coated, mixed with or in any way in contact with dirt, toxic substances, or unsanitary substances, or altered by heat, chemical, biological or other actions;
"inspector" means an inspector appointed under this Act;
"regulated product" means an agricultural product that has been declared by the regulations to be a regulated product;
"sell" includes any transaction in respect of the possession of any regulated product made for any consideration or in hope or expectation thereof, including
 - (a) commercial promotions where regulated products are ostensibly given away for free, and
 - (b) transactions in which a regulated product is made available to a person for no consideration, but the product is to be or is in fact processed or altered after the product is made available for any consideration, or in hope or expectation thereof, by the person making the product available in the first place.

3. The Commissioner in Executive Council shall appoint such inspectors as are considered necessary for the administration and enforcement of this Act.
4. In the performance of duties under this Act, an inspector and any person accompanying an inspector at his or her request for the purpose of assisting in the performance of his or her duties, may enter upon any land, and while so engaged they are liable only for any actual damage wilfully or negligently caused by them.
5. Every inspector has the authority to enforce the provisions of this Act and to issue any licence that may be issued under this Act.
6. An inspector may inspect any agricultural product found in a place to which the public has access.
7. (1) An inspector may at any reasonable time enter any premises in respect of which a licence has been issued under this Act in order to inspect the premises for the purposes of this Act related to the licence.

(2) Where an inspector is refused entry to any premises under subsection (1), the Executive Council Member may suspend or cancel the licence.
8. (1) An inspector may at any reasonable time require a person to produce for inspection any records the person is required to keep under this Act, and the inspector may take extracts from them or make copies of them.

(2) Where a person refuses to produce within a reasonable time any record for the inspection of an inspector under subsection (1), the inspector may apply to a justice of the peace for an order for the seizure of the record to enable extracts to be taken or copies made.

(3) Records seized under subsection (2) shall be returned to the person from whom they were seized as soon as practicable after the necessary extracts are taken or copies made.

9. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where an inspector has reasonable and probable grounds to believe and does believe that there is in any place any agricultural product in respect of which anything has been done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Act, or any object used for the commission of an offence under this Act, the inspector may search the place.
- (2) An inspector shall not search any place unless, immediately before the search, the inspector obtains the permission of a lawful occupant to do so, or unless the inspector obtains a search warrant authorizing the search.
- (3) A search warrant may be issued by a justice of the peace where he or she is satisfied by information upon oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is in any place
 - (a) any papers, books, films, pictures, recordings or records that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act, or
 - (b) any agricultural product or object referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) In the carrying-out of a search under this section, an inspector may use all force that is necessary in the circumstances, including the breaking of any lock or fastening, but the inspector shall
 - (a) ensure that the premises are left as secure after the search as they were at the commencement of the search, and
 - (b) make a reasonable effort forthwith after the search to give notice of any action under this subsection to the owner or other person entitled to possession of the place searched.
- (5) Where the owner or other person authorized to occupy a dwelling house that is not vacant is absent from the premises, an inspector shall not exercise any power under subsection (4) unless
 - (a) he or she is accompanied by a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and
 - (b) he or she has made a reasonable effort to give advance notice of the search to the owner or other person.
- (6) Where an inspector is carrying out a search under this section he or she may be accompanied by any person who may be of assistance in carrying out the search.

 - (8) In this section "place" includes any land, building, dwelling house, tent, camper, trailer, motor home, aircraft, or watercraft.

- (a) it may be evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act,
 - (b) it may disclose evidence of disease,
 - (c) it may be so contaminated as to make it unfit for human consumption, or
 - (d) it is found with any agricultural product that is seized under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) and it is not easily distinguishable therefrom.
- (2) Where an inspector finds anything that he or she reasonably believes may be evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act, he or she may seize it.

12. Upon the seizure of anything under this Act, a receipt reasonably descriptive of the seized products or things shall be issued to the person from where they were seized, but if there is no such person present
- (a) the receipt shall be left in a prominent place at the place of the seizure, if the seizure is made on private property, and

- (2) No agricultural product shall be released from seizure, and no court shall make any order to that effect, if the product is unfit for human consumption, unless appropriate conditions are imposed for its disposal or destruction.

15. (1) Where an agricultural product is seized under paragraph 10(b) or (c) and no evidence of disease or contamination is subsequently found, it shall forthwith be released from seizure, but if the product has spoiled while under seizure the Executive Council Member may pay to the owner compensation for the loss not exceeding the fair market value the product might reasonably have been expected to bring if it had not been seized.
- (2) Compensation under subsection (1) shall be paid to the owner where the spoilage of the agricultural product has resulted from the willful or negligent failure of the inspector or the Executive Council Member, or anyone acting on behalf of the inspector or the Executive Council Member, to take reasonable care of the product during the seizure.
- (3) In the absence of agreement between the Executive Council Member and the owner of an agricultural product under subsection (1) or (2), the Agricultural Products Appeal Board may, upon the application of either party, determine the fair market value the agricultural product might reasonably have been expected to bring if it had not been seized.
16. Except as provided by section 15, no liability attaches to the Crown, the Executive Council Member or an inspector, or to any person assisting the Executive Council Member or an inspector at his or her request, for loss or damage arising from the seizure, disposal or destruction of any diseased or contaminated agricultural product under this Act.

Legend:

In. = Included in Am. = Amended

En. = Enacted Sp. = Spent

Rp. = Repealed History = from the earlier of:

(i) enactment or

Re. = Re-enacted (ii) inclusion in R.O.Y.T., 1971

N.C.N.R. = Not Consolidated, Not Repealed.

R.S.Y.T. = Revised Statutes of the Yukon Territory, originally published under the title Revised Ordinances of the Yukon Territory.

S.Y.T. = Statutes of the Yukon Territory, published before November 12, 1981, under the title Ordinances of the Yukon Territory or Ordinances of the Government of Yukon.

* = On November 12, 1985 a date for the coming into force of this Act had yet to be proclaimed. In this index there is no distinction made between an Act that has been proclaimed in force in its entirety and an Act that has been proclaimed in force only in part, there being other parts still to be proclaimed in force. Therefore, where the Act by its terms confers authority for it to be proclaimed in force in whole or in part, the user should check the proclamation to determine what parts of the Act are in force. The presence of an asterisk can in those cases be taken only as indication that some part of the Act has not been proclaimed in force.

Consolidation Chapter No. = Chapter designation of the Act for the purposes of the Consolidated version of the Statutes of the Yukon Territory.
