SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT!!! Same picture as Whisper January 2nd,

But right blurb!!!!

Canada's Nadia Moser, middle, and biathlon teammate Megan Bankes, right, are all smiles after finishing first and third, respectively, at the women's IBU Cup 7.5 km sprint on Saturday in Obertilliach, Austria. For Moser of Whitehorse, it was her first podium finish.

Canadian biathletes dominated the IBU Cup women's 7.5-kilometre sprint on Saturday in Austria, led by winner Nadia Moser of Whitehorse, who earned her first-ever podium finish. The 21-year-old shot clean on both ranges and was quick on the track in Obertilliach, crossing the finish line with tears of joy in 20 minutes 43.4 seconds.

Canada's Nadia Moser and Megan Bankes finished first and third respectively in women's biathlon from Obertilliach, Austria. 1:01

Calgary's Megan Bankes placed third behind Russia's Natalia Gerbulova, 7-10ths of a second behind Moser.

Emily Dickson of Burns Lake, B.C., was 58th and Calgary's Darya Sepandj 91st.

7th in super sprint final

Moser has demonstrated significant improvement in her performance this week.

After placing 69th in the women's 15 km individual on Wednesday, she climbed to seventh in Friday's super sprint final, 18.8 seconds off the winning pace of Sweden's Felicia Lindqvist.

Moser and Bankes are among eight Canadians on the World Cup circuit, but dropped down to the IBU Cup tour this week.

Your Destination Booking Agency

Welcome to 2019, it is sure to be an exciting year, I aspire to help in making it an enjoyable year too.

I have really enjoyed programming the Globe Theatre so far. The ongoing support I get from the community is so encouraging I just can't stop. My ideas are many, so I am working on ways to sustain the project to keep it going and see our precious Historic Globe Theatre used to its full potential.

This winter I plan to dedicate some time and get my website current. If you want to check out the website template, it will show you what I hope to evolve Explore Atlin into. Check it out at exploreatlin.weebly.com

Upcoming Programing

Your Input is Valuable I am always listening for your suggestions including days of the week & times, presenters, musicians, & movie titles

Live Entertainment I already have a few presenters, musicians, and.... theatre booked for 2019. And am in negotiations with even more people which will bring comedy, poetry, and art exhibitions to name a few.

Weekly Movies will continue. In 2019 if there is an interest I will try and have a variety of matinees as well as evening showings.

Want to rent the Globe Theatre?

Weddings, private parties, meetings and more. The Globe Theatre is a great venue for private functions.

The 100 seats are now movable to make arranging the space more individual.

Let me know your requirements,
I am happy to provide you with a quote.

Heating System

You may have heard, the new boiler system is up and running. This means the building is now operational year round.

All proceeds from movie admission & concession, coffee/tea goes towards keeping the building heated.

Fundraising

Hard to believe, it has been 20 years since the restoration of the theatre was completed. As the leaseholder of the Globe Theatre, I will keep the Historical Society informed of any upkeep and improvements the building and assets need and will do my part to help them with fundraising so the Globe Theatre can continue to be used year round for many years to come

A Fate Worse than Wildfire

By Stephen Badhwar

There's a wildfire burning
Through the heart of our community

It's a blazing inferno:
Fanned by wind to vortex
Consuming our homes
Destroying our lives
Levelling the town.

This fire has a voracious appetite
Leaping from house to house
Seeking each of us out
Sucking the air from our lungs
Trying to burn us all.

It's separating our families and friends
Scorching a swath between people
Forcing us to flee what we love
Razing the dreams of our youth
Burning a hole through hope

Coming between mother and daughter
Coming between father and son
Coming between brother and sister
Coming between elder and younger
Coming between auntie and uncle

Isolating us, dividing us
One by one by one by one
So it can conquer us
Devour us
One by one by one
By one.

We.
Us.
The people,
Inside all of us
We have the power to choose.

We are a community of people
Caring
Loving
Compassionate,
We are putting the fire on the run.

Our prayers to the Creator have been answered
And the wind is finally shifting.

We are reaching out for help
We know we cannot do it alone
We are asking our friends and our family
We are asking our community and our nations:

Help us douse these addictions.

Together we're turning the tide
Knocking the fire down
Together we're rebuilding the town
One by one by one
Together we're seeking forgiveness
Walking the path towards health
Together we're learning to grieve
Letting go of our stuff

Together we're facing our traumas
Allowing our demons to just leave
Together we're sharing our stories
Hearing, and being heard
Together we're connecting with the land
Satisfying that essential need
Together we're rebuilding our cultures
Knowing it keeps us whole.

And, the day is coming
When addictions have finally waned
And our health is strong
And our community is safe
And we no longer run from flames.

“Comfort”

When the sun is out
And people are about,
When there's time to share
More than a brief hello
It is a comfort to know...
We are not alone.

When darkness descends
And limits the world we see,
A brotherhood of stars
Give comfort through the night
By letting us know...
We are not alone.
